

21 January

15 January 1866 – 21 January 1913

Fr. Luís DELLEME

Born in Roubaix, France, on January 15, 1866, he entered the Society of Jesus on October 16, 1882. He was sent to the Zambezia Mission (Mozambique), when he was still a scholastic, in 1889. He travelled with Fr. Dupeyron, in 1890, to found the mission of Milange, in Tumbini. In 1894, he was sent back to Europe to continue with his studies. He took his final vows on February 03, 1902. He did not return to the Zambezia Mission as he was sent to Madagascar's Mission. He died on January 21, 1913, in Ambohimandroso, in Madagascar.
