Fr JOSEPH WRIGHT 20 August 1850 – 6 April 1897

Apart from a few entries in the St Aidan's journal, this writer has been unable to find mention of Joseph Wright. He entered the Society in 1884 and was at St Aidan's in 1895. He 'went to Graaf Reinet', presumably for a visit, on 30th April that year. On October 19th, he returned and in November he is described as Spiritual Father in the school. In January 1896, he gave the house retreat at St Aidan's and on March 18th he 'left for Dunbrody'.

These few details tell us little about the man. He died in Blackpool in 1897.
