

25 September

18 May 1918 – 25 September 1980

Fr. Albino ESTEVES

Born in Duas Igrejas, Vila Verde, Braga, on 18 May 1918, he entered the Society of Jesus on 07 September 1939, in Guimarães. He studied philosophy in Braga and did his regency at Nun 'Alvares Institute, Caldas da Saúde. He studied theology in Granada, where he was ordained priest on 15 July 1949. On his return to Portugal, he was sent to the Nun'Alvres Institute to work as teacher and dean of studies, until 1964. He took his final vows on 02 February 1952, at Caldas da Saúde. From 1964 to 1966, he worked as military chaplain in Angola. He left for the Vice-Province of Mozambique in 1967 where he worked as parish assistant and teacher at the Technical School in Quelimane, until 1971. He went back to Portugal, where he worked as Parish priest in Soutelo and in Aljezur, Algarve. In 1979 he was assigned to the residence of Póvoa de Varzim. He died in Porto on 25 September 1980.

(Cf. APSI, Livro das entradas; Necrológio; JESUÍTAS..., n. 67, Novembro 1980)