Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Eternal High Priest

By design, this feast inaugurates the octave leading up to the celebration of Corpus Christi. Because the latter is celebrated on a Sunday, in the Dioceses of Southern Africa, this feast is moved to the Thursday before Corpus Christi – or – left to the discretion of the Diocesan Bishop as when it will be celebrated in the Diocese. The feast inaugurates a triduum leading up to the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of the Lord.

* Where no rank is given, an optional memorial may be celebrated.

The Ordo, which is based on the General Roman Calendar is an indispensable aid in the preparation of good liturgy. It is not, however, a complete instruction on liturgical celebrations. Those involved in the planning of the liturgy – Priests and Deacons, Liturgy Commissions, members of Religious Communities – are encouraged to study the liturgical documents upon which the Order is based, such as

- The General Instruction on the Roman Missal for Southern Africa (SACBC 2007).
- The General Instruction on the Liturgy of the Hours (1971).
- The Introduction to the Lectionary (1981).
- Pastoral Introduction to the Order of Mass: A pastoral Directory and Resources (SACBC 2008).
- The English translation of the Order of Mass © 2006, International Committee on English in the Liturgy.
- The Roman Missal: New English Translation according to the Third Typical Edition (2010). Paulines Publications Africa; (2011).
- Lectionary (Ignatius Press, October (2011).
- Becoming one Body One Spirit in Christ. International Committee on English in the liturgy (2010).

This Southern African edition of the Ordo shows changes which have been approved for the Region, as well as other information of regional interest. With regard to Holy Days of Obligation¹, the Southern African Catholic Bishops Conference has decreed that, in addition to Sunday, the day to be observed is:

- the Solemnity of The Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ (December 25).

The following solemnities are transferred to Sundays

- The Epiphany to the Sunday between January 2 and January 8;
- The Ascension of Christ to the following Sunday.
- The Body and Blood of Christ to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday.
- The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary to the Sunday following 15 August.
- The Solemnity of All Saints to the following Sunday.

The Solemnities of the

- Immaculate Conception (8 December),
- the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God (1 January),
- St Joseph (19 March), and
- the Apostles, Saints Peter and Paul (29 June)

shall NOT be observed as Holy Days of Obligation.

1) From 17-31 December and during Lent,

Memorials may be commemorated as follows:

- a) In the Office of the Readings, after the patristic reading and its responsory, the hagiographic reading may be added with its responsory and prayer.
- b) At Morning and Evening Prayer, after the prayer of the day, the prayer of the memorial may be added.
- c) At Mass, the opening prayer of the memorial may replace that of the day.

2) Votive Masses may be celebrated on weekdays in Ordinary Time. However, 'when a serious need or a pastoral advantage is present, at the direction of the local Bishop or with his permission, an appropriate Mass may be celebrated on any day except on Solemnities, the Sundays of Advent and Lent, during the Easter season, Ash Wednesday and during Holy Week.

3) Readings

- a) The lectionary gives proper readings for all memorials, but these should only be used if there is some pastoral reason; the weekday reading should normally be used on a memorial since the Church desires that a richer portion of God's Word be laid before the people.

- b) A new liturgical calendar for the Society of Jesus was approved by the Congregation of Divine Worship on 22 October 2012. This is reflected in this present liturgical calendar. Specific readings are given for Jesuit solemnities, feasts and memorials; for Jesuit optional memorials, the readings are taken from the common. The weekday readings are listed together with the Jesuit memorial readings and alone for the optional memorial. Also note that the readings for Jesuit saints who are celebrated on the universal calendar are now the same as those selected for the universal calendar.

- (A) cf. 2002 GIRM 372. NOTE: Note "Ritual Masses" include the Nuptial Mass. Thus, on Sundays of Advent, Lent and Easter, and on solemnities, the Nuptial Mass is not permitted, but a wedding may take place using the Mass of the Day, See note (F) below.
- (B) cf. 2002 GIRM 374. Permission (or direction) by bishop is for "serious need or pastoral advantage."
- (C) cf. 2002 GIRM 376. The rector of the church or the celebrant may make a decision based on a "real need or pastoral advantage."
- (D) cf. 2002 GIRM 381. These are the Masses "on receiving news of a death, for the final burial, or on the first anniversary."
- (E) See the Introduction to Rite of Marriage, no. 34 (1990 ed.), for details about when a nuptial Mass may be used and alternatives for weddings during Mass.

In summary, the Nuptial Mass may NOT be used on Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter, during Holy Week, during the Easter Octave, on Ash Wednesday and All Souls (Nov 2), on Solemnities that occur on Sundays (e.g., Epiphany, Pentecost, the Body and Blood of Christ), and on all other Solemnities (either of obligation or not) (e.g., Aug 15, Jun 24).

On these days, if a wedding takes place during Mass, the Mass of the day is to be celebrated (rather than the Nuptial Mass) using the readings of the Sunday or feast, but the Nuptial blessing is included and a solemn blessing for weddings may be used.

If a wedding takes place during Mass on a solemnity that is not of obligation, the Mass of the solemnity is to be used but one reading may be chosen from those proposed in the Rite of Marriage (cf. 1990 Intro. Rite of Marriage, no. 34)

On Sundays of the Christmas Season and in Ordinary Time, if a wedding takes place during a parish Mass, the Mass of the Sunday is used (with one reading from the Rite of Marriage). On these Sundays, if a wedding takes place at a Mass which is not a parish Mass, the Nuptial Mass may be used.

"Celebration of marriage on Good Friday and Holy Saturday is altogether forbidden." (1990 Intro. Rite of Marriage, no. 32) This specifically applies to marriages outside Mass since all Masses are forbidden on these days, before the Easter Vigil.
